PHEBE BROWN BRINGHURST
1865-1938

Phebe Brown was born 10 Dec. 1865, in Salt Lake City, Utah, to Homer and Sarah Ann Woolf Brown. She had 4 brothers and 2 sisters. She also had 9 half brothers and sisters. Her father, Homer Brown, went to Nephi in July 1857 to make a home for his family. The family, then returned to Salt Lake City, where Harriet, Phebe, Andrew, and Frank were born. They later moved to Hyde Park, where the youngest child, Charles Sidney, was born in 1874.

In 1881 the family moved to Taylorsville. 3 of the children when they were young, including Sarah Francis, who passed away just one day before the birth of Harriet (who was just older than Phebe.)

Marital troubles between her parents saddened Phebe; they were divorced in 1882 just 8 years after the birth of their youngest child.

Phebe met and married Lewis Bringhurst 3 July 1884. She was 19 years old at the time of her marriage.

Phebe became the mother of 9 children, 5 of whom reached childhood: Grace, 1885; L. Scott, 1887; Eleanor, 1889; Harvey, 1891; Chester, 1893; Beatrice, 1896; Tracy, 1898; Mildred, 1903; and Stanley, 1906. The Bringhursts also had 19 grandchildren. The family lived in Taylorsville, where all of the children were born, and which later became known as Bennion Ward.

Phebe and her husband, Louis, had a happy life with their children and grandchildren. She passed away on 9 Sep. 1938 at the age of 72.
